Statement of Ambassador Rosemary A. DiCarlo, U.S. Deputy Permanent Representative to the United Nations, to the Security Council, December 2010.

The resolution we have adopted today creating a durable and appropriate institution that will outlast the Tribunals themselves and complete their functions assures the legacy of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda. We applaud the work of the Austrian Chair of the Informal Working Group on International Tribunals, Ambassador Mayr-Harting, as well as the support of the Office of Legal Affairs and the Tribunals themselves in getting this important task accomplished.
